

Team HEALTH – Executive Manager, Mental Health

Your chance to be part of this great organisation where people are paramount

- Leadership opportunity with a Not for Profit Employer of Choice
- Deliver best practice service to your local community
- Work, life balance and a 9 night fortnight are part of the package

TeamHEALTH have a proud 30 year history providing services to people with mental illness across the Northern Territory. TeamHEALTH was established by a group of relatives and service providers of people with a mental illness who wished to provide stable, safe, accommodation for their family members to call home.

Over time TeamHEALTH has developed and grown and now provide a range of support focusing on prevention, early intervention and recovery including residential services for people with severe and persistent mental illness, a community housing service, individual recovery, and group-based support, together with early intervention support, home based aged care support, mental health promotion and education.

The Executive Manager, Mental Health will provide strategic and operational leadership and management to provide increased opportunities of recovery for people whose lives are severely affected by mental illness.

Reporting to the Chief Executive Officer you will be responsible for the development and implementation of the strategic and operational plans stemming from the organisation-wide strategic planning process. Ideally you will have working knowledge of the National Mental Health Standards or NDIS Practice Standards or the Aged Care Quality Standards and demonstrated understanding of early intervention approaches, psychosocial rehabilitation, and the recovery model in the mental health services field.

The successful candidate will have a demonstrated capability to operate and think strategically whilst displaying a strong business acumen and a high level of initiative, along with the ability to work with multiple accountabilities and a proven track record of successfully managing competing priorities under pressure and within tight timeframes.

You will be an excellent strategic manager, a proficient communicator, have advanced analytical and problem solving and negotiation skills and provide contemporary leadership to your team, in addition, you will hold a relevant tertiary qualification, preferably in business, management or social science and have a proven track record working at leadership level within a human services sector.

In return you will be rewarded with a competitive salary and benefits package in line with your skills and experience along with full salary sacrifice options.

To be considered for this exciting opportunity you must meet the above criteria, have Australian Citizenship or Permanent Residency, and have or be willing to obtain the relevant clearances and checks that are associated with this role. Only shortlisted candidates will be contacted.
