

Life Without Barriers – Director, Children, Youth & Family

- Are you ready for a lifestyle change ... is it time to call Darwin home?
- Executive Leadership position with an award winning NFP Employer of Choice
- Excellent package, full salary sacrifice options and relocation assistance

Follow your passion to this multi-cultural, sophisticated city that still has its relaxed charm, embrace living and working in beautiful Darwin.

Every day, Life Without Barriers provides support and care to children and young people, as they work collaboratively with families, carers, and communities, to ensure they have the environment they deserve to grow. With a focus on ensuring safety and respect, this is an opportunity to make a positive and meaningful difference in these young lives and help pave a brighter future.

Life Without Barriers is a leading social purpose organisation of over 8,000 employees working in more than 500 communities across Australia. They support children, young people and families, people with disability, older people and people with mental illness. They work with people who are homeless and refugees and asylum seekers. This is your opportunity to join a community of people who are dedicated to breaking down barriers.

Reporting to the Executive Director – Child, Youth and Family (CYF), your role is to lead and manage the children, youth and family service delivery across the Northern Territory, including metro, regional and remote locations.

You will have a proven track record operating at an executive level in a similar role within the community services sector, managing a geographically dispersed program operations and multi-disciplinary teams in the areas of child protection and out of home care.

In addition, you will have an impressive background in building and managing relationships with key stakeholders from government agencies, accrediting bodies, and NGOs, along with working knowledge of the relevant legislative and regulatory environment relating to your areas of responsibility.

The successful candidate will be proficient communicator, have outstanding analytical, problem solving and negotiation skills and hold a relevant tertiary qualification in business management, social work, psychology, or related clinical field.

You will have a demonstrated capability to operate and think strategically whilst displaying a strong business acumen and a high level of initiative, along with the ability to work with multiple accountabilities and a proven track record of successfully managing competing priorities under pressure and within tight timeframes.

In return you will be rewarded with a competitive salary and benefits package in line with your skills and experience along with full salary sacrifice options and relocation assistance.

To be considered for this opportunity you must meet the above criteria, have Australian Citizenship or Permanent Residency, and have or be willing to obtain the relevant clearances and checks that are associated with this role. Only shortlisted candidates will be contacted.

For a confidential discussion and more information contact Mark Williams on 0450 311272, for email enquiries and application submissions please forward in Word format to mark@communityconsultingaustralia.com.au

Closing date for applications is Wednesday 8th June 2022.