

Allied Health Manager, Central Australia

Leadership role based in Alice Springs, staff accommodation is just one of the great benefits, this is your chance to be part of something special

- Follow your passion, embrace living and working in Central Australia
- Excellent package, including accommodation and relocation assistance
- Fantastic opportunity to be part of an organisation where people are paramount

Carpentaria is a values-based organisation which focuses on the needs and goals of individuals. They are committed to a person-centred approach to service delivery that respects the rights of people to make informed choices about their lives and to receive the necessary support, information and encouragement to participate, and be included, in all aspects of community life across the Northern Territory.

In this newly created position of Allied Health Manager, Central Australia the successful candidate will be responsible for the professional leadership, organisational management, and successful delivery of Allied Health services to paediatric and adult clients based in Alice Springs and across Central Australia.

Reporting to the Allied Health Manager, Territory Wide, you will ensure integrated and comprehensive service delivery utilising a multidisciplinary and culturally informed approach, whilst balancing a clinical caseload and leading the new operational delivery team based in Alice Springs.

The position requires demonstrated management and leadership capabilities, along with clinical experience, preferably within a remote community environment. You will have the proven ability to develop, plan, and conduct assessment and therapy sessions within the clients' natural environment that aligns with a person centred and strengths-based model, both online and face to face.

The successful candidate will have current registration with an appropriate professional body, proven experience working with people from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds and excellent interpersonal skills. A high level of written and verbal communication skills is essential, along with a collaborative and supportive leadership style.

You will hold a tertiary level qualification in an Allied Health discipline and have passion and empathy when working with and supporting people with a disability. Applications from candidates with a post graduate Allied Health or Management qualification and experience within the NDIS will held in high regard.

In return you will be rewarded with an excellent salary and benefits package that will potentially include housing (or subsidy), a company vehicle, relocation assistance and full salary sacrifice options.

To be considered for this exciting opportunity you must meet the above criteria, have Australian Citizenship or Permanent Residency, and have or be willing to obtain the relevant clearances and checks that are associated with this role. Only shortlisted candidates will be contacted.

Please note that applications will be reviewed as they are received, for a confidential discussion and more information contact Mark Williams on 0450 311272, for email enquiries and application submissions please forward in Word format to mark@communityconsultingaustralia.com.au
