Unity Housing Company Ltd (Unity) is one of the largest and most innovative not-for-profit providers of affordable and social housing in South Australia. Their primary aim is to provide affordable, safe, and secure housing for people, whilst supporting independence and connection to their communities.

We have an exciting full time, permanent vacancy for an experienced Housing Officer to join the Unity Housing team managing a Specialist Disability Housing Portfolio (SDHP). You will play a key role in supporting people with a disability to live in safe, accessible housing that is suited to their lives.

Reporting to the Senior Manager, SDHP you will be responsible for providing tenancy management services to tenants across South Australia. You will be an integral part of the tenancy service delivery team, building strong relationships with tenants, service providers and internal teams to support holistic and tenant-focused outcomes.

The successful candidate will have demonstrated experience delivering high quality tenancy management services with expertise in Specialist Disability Accommodation (SDA) and National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS).

In addition, you will have proficient service delivery, time management and communication skills, along with excellent stakeholder engagement and development skills and a comprehensive understanding of the Residential Tenancies Act. Candidates with a Social Housing, Disability or Community Services qualification will be held in high regard.

You will be an inspirational team member with a passion for social justice and supporting people and communities to reach their full potential, with the commitment to work collaboratively and deliver within best practice principles in line with the values, mission and purpose of the organisation.

In return you will be rewarded with a competitive base salary and an excellent benefits package that will include full Not-for-profit salary packaging benefits, 5 week's annual and flexible working arrangements.

To be considered for this exciting opportunity, you must meet the above criteria, have full unrestricted working rights and currently hold or be willing to obtain the relevant clearances and checks that are essential for this role.
